

TELLS VALUE OF DENTAL AID FOR SCHOOLS

A total of 764 dental operations were performed on Mount Albert public school pupils through the school clinic at an average cost per operation of 31 1/2 cents whereas according to the schedule of minimum dental fees, the total cost would have been $1,331. Mrs. W. H. Bell told the Home and School Association meeting Tuesday night in King George school.

She presented the following statistics from the school dental clinic at Mount Albert:

Number of children examined, 70; number having perfect teeth requiring only cleaning, 8; number of teeth requiring cleaning, 71; number of treatments, 33; silver fillings, 388; cement fillings, 16; synthetic porcelain fillings, 40; extractions of temporary teeth, 86; extractions of permanent teeth, 24; local anesthetics, 36; total number of operations, 764; total cost, $240.

Mrs. Bell outlined the way in which a school dental clinic could be opened as to first bring it up before the school board. The second step, she said, is that if the board approves, to consult the board of health which in turn, if approving, applies to the provincial health department. "The province will make a grant of 30 percent of the cost," she said.

Mrs. M. B. Seldon, president, was chairman of the meeting. The meeting was opened by the performance of a play by pupils of Mrs. Barnes' class in King George school. Mrs. Seldon said that the goal of the association was a membership of 100.

Hog Producers Slow To Register For Scheme Note

Failure of hundreds of hog producers to register for the vote being taken by the Ontario Hog Producers' Association is liable to jeopardize the opportunity being offered these farmers to set up a marketing organization.

W. M. Cockburn, agricultural representative for York, who has been appointed registrar and deputy returning officer, points out that all hog producers should register whether they are in favor of or opposed to the scheme, so he can mail ballots to every producer. It is doubtful whether any action will be taken by the Farm Products Control Board unless a good percentage of hog raisers register.

Registration has been extended to November 30. Farmers with one or more pigs should either register in person or write to the agricultural representative, Newmarket, giving address, township, concession and lot. For the convenience of the farmers and to speed up registration, the York County Federation of Agriculture has sent registration cards to every rural box holder. These must be mailed to the agricultural office at Newmarket with a post mark not later than November 30.

Break Into N. H. S. Again Take Typewriter, Rule

Newmarket high school was broken into Thursday night and a typewriter and 50-foot steel tape measure were stolen, Chief Constable James Leeder reported. Entry into the high school was made through the coal chute.

The safe in the principal's office, still in a state of repair from the last break-in a few weeks ago, was not touched. The last time the high school was entered, more loss was suffered from material damage than from the theft of cash.

Two weeks ago, Geer and Byers were entered and an attempt made to open the safe with a 20-cent screw driver. The break-in Thursday makes the third of a recent series of break-ins and thefts.

MAYOR MAKES REQUEST

May I discuss a matter which is much in the public mind today, Community Committee? This is the last word in uniting all the people in our town in community projects, education and leadership, and recreation. It has received the approval of the government of the province of Ontario and now finances are provided towards a sound, recognized program. We can now go full steam ahead.

The Ice Carnival of 1945 and the Hallowe'en night, the best in the province, have demonstrated what this town can do. We have our own talent and now we can get material aid for a larger and more embracing program. I have consulted the best minds in the province about such a program and when my council is elected, will present one to council members and to the public for their and your approval.

Because the council is the only medium through which a complete program can be offered to the public, and the only medium through which government aid can be had, my request is that all organizations contemplating such a program forego premature announcement of their plans until we have assembled an over-all program for public approval.

Then by general town representation on a committee of council, the plan can be organized and financial aid sought. For any organization or club to act individually towards this end would be to destroy hopes for a community program.

We have shown what can be done with 100 percent co-operation. Let us all, as a town, work to implement a program of recreation, education and community leadership for the making of our community a happier place in which to live.

FARMERS ATTRACTED BY BREEDING UNIT

With six months' successful operation of their artificial insemination unit, the Maple Cattle Breeders' Association have taken on a few herds in the Newmarket district under an agreement with J. R. Lockhart, veterinary. A number of other farmers are interested, so a meeting is being held in the Agricultural Office at Newmarket on Wednesday, Dec. 5, at 8 p.m., to discuss this new development in cattle breeding which enables farmers to eliminate the hazard of keeping dairy bulls.

The association at Maple recently enlarged their premises and having purchased two more bulls are now in a position to extend their services. Already about half of the 120 members have disposed of their herd sires and put in an extra cow or two in their place. The plan was developed primarily for the commercial dairyman with perhaps few if any purebreds but the quality and records behind the sires being used has resulted in the enrolment of many of the breeders.

BANQUET IS

R. C. Morrison, nominated as councillor, said that in the next three years, Newmarket would be doubling its population. "There is a very great need for planned real estate development," he declared. He suggested that some move be made to take six feet off the store fronts as a step towards widening Main St.

Mayor, Reeve, Deputy Acclaimed; 10 Named For Six Council Seats, W. Dunn, F. Thompson For Hydro

"The times are moving swiftly and in a few short years, I prophesy that the population of Newmarket will have increased by 2,000 or 3,000," said Mayor Dr. L. W. Dales in his address of acknowledgement following his acclamation as mayor at the nomination meeting Friday night in Newmarket town hall.

In the past, there has been too much concern with tax rates and assessment and bank balances, the mayor said. "Times have changed and the council has newer responsibilities. The tax rate must always be a concern but at the same time, we must learn to spend money to create advantages for the community. I hear talk of a new school. A recreation program as an answer to juvenile delinquency is needed. We must be all concerned with the provision of wholesome and happy living in the community. I ask the co-operation of all the service clubs, the church and youth organizations in bringing this about."

Announcing his retirement from municipal life, Fred A. Lundy, in municipal offices since 1918, said that with his attainment of the office of warden of York county council, he had achieved his ambition. He said that this part of Canada was in for an industrial boom of great magnitude and urged the co-operation of all citizens in making the coming year a good year for the town.

Arthur D. Evans, acclaimed reeve, said that Mr. Lundy had been paid the highest tributes in his memory by his colleagues in county council and that Mr. Lundy's long record of service was deserving of the plaudits. He urged a cautious approach to the expansion in town and advised greater provision of municipal services such as light, water and sewer facilities.

A. V. Higginson, nominated as councillor, said he preferred not to speak until he was sure he would be qualifying.

J. A. Perks, nominated councillor, reported on the police committee and said he had been pleased with the work of Chief Constable James F. Leeder who was named to the post following the retirement of James Sloss. G. M. Byers, nominated as councillor, emphasized the prospects of an industrial boom and pointed out the heavy increase in responsibilities of council. "The need for provision of employment for returned men is most pressing," he said. "New industries are most important to the town."

Mrs. J. C. R. Edwards, nominated as councillor, stressed the need for an organized recreation program and said that the community had demonstrated how it could raise money for war purposes. "Why can't we raise like amounts for peacetime progress in town?" she asked.

Orville Ganton, nominated as councillor, said that everyone in the community should serve at one time or another in public office as one of their duties to the community. He said that if elected, he would devote his time to furthering organized recreation in town.

R. C. Morrison, nominated as councillor, said that in the next three years, Newmarket would be doubling its population. "There is a very great need for planned real estate development," he declared. He suggested that some move be made to take six feet off the store fronts as a step towards widening Main St.

A. R. Howlett, R. W. Jelley, Frank Bowser and Joseph Vale, all nominated as councillors, were absent. The last two named and J. L. Spillette, who was acclaimed as deputy-reeve, were reported in Toronto on duties of the industrial committee.

Four Candidates Contest Three School Board Seats

Four candidates for the public school board addressed the Home and School Association at its meeting in King George school Tuesday night. First to speak was Rudy Renzius, past member of the board, who said that the board had accomplished much in the past year, pointing to the introduction of a salary schedule for the teachers, and the reports gathered by the board for the improvement of lighting and heating in the schools.

When asked why the schools were so cold, Mr. Renzius said that the heating systems in the schools were badly in need of repair and that the board was waiting an engineer's report before proceeding with a program of repair.

Mrs. N. L. Mathews said that in a short time, the now crowded schools would be over-taxed and a new school or additions on the present schools would be necessary. She said that she was much concerned with providing the best schooling possible and as a member of the board, if elected, would work towards that end.

children was foremost in his mind. He said that the appointment of a public health nurse was only the first step. "Health starts a year or two before the child is born and continues to be a constant concern," he declared. "As a board member, if elected, I would work to provide even more health provisions in the schools."

"I would like to stress safety where children are concerned," said C. Morden Carter, school board trustee for the past two years. "We must take every precaution to see that there are adequate fire escapes and exits wherever our children gather. There should be exits and escapes both in the town hall and arena. It is a matter to which the school board has given a great deal of consideration in the past and to which I will work to improve as a board member."

Mayor Dr. L. W. Dales paid tribute to Miss Jessie Smith as a "most efficient health nurse". He said that a health nurse was an experiment which had worked out for the best in Newmarket. "May I say that Miss Smith has a reputation of being tops in municipal nurses," he added.

H. H. Glover Named Reeve As Ross McMillan Retires

Harold H. Glover, former deputy-reeve of North Gwillimbury, was acclaimed as reeve at the nomination meeting in Belhaven Friday. The former reeve, Ross M. McMillan, retired from municipal office to better devote his time to his work on the rehabilitation board. Mr. Glover was nominated by Frank Marritt and Erwin Winch.

William A. King, councillor for the past two years, and Benjamin Johnston were nominated as candidates for the deputy-reeveship. Mr. King was nominated by James Clark and Lorne Holborn and Mr. Johnston was nominated by Jeremiah Sedore and Chas. W. Richardson.

James Nelson, nominated by John Bosworth and Harry Shaw; J. L. Doyle, nominated by G. Walnick and Carl Anderson; Clark Martin, nominated by Jeremiah Sedore and Arthur Pollock; and Lloyd Stiles, nominated by Jeremiah Sedore and William Winch, are candidates for the council.

There were several expressions of regret over Mr. McMillan's withdrawal and tribute to the good work he had accomplished during his term of office. Mr. McMillan, in a brief address, reviewed township affairs, pointing out the progress made and the favorable state of township finances. He said he was still remaining a resident of North Gwillimbury and would not be losing any interest in its welfare. He thanked the councillors who had worked with him and the public for their support.

Mr. Glover expressed his appreciation of the acclamation awarded to him and said he would do his best to fulfil his duties of a reeve. The other candidates spoke briefly.

Mr. Pugsley, the genial reeve of Sutton, was called on and referred to Mr. McMillan's successes as a member of the county council. He also said as a non-resident ratepayer, he was interested in and pleased with the good state of affairs in North Gwillimbury.

Dr. L. W. Dales was acclaimed mayor of the town of Newmarket for another year, at the nomination meeting for Newmarket town council and public school board held in Newmarket town hall Friday night. A. D. Evans, former deputy-reeve, was acclaimed reeve, and J. L. Spillette, chairman of the finance committee in last year's council, was acclaimed deputy-reeve.

F. A. Lundy, reeve of the Newmarket town council last year and warden of York county council, although nominated, did not qualify. Ten candidates qualified to fill the six positions left open on the council. One of them, Mrs. J. C. R. Edwards, as near as can be determined, is the first woman to qualify as a candidate for council.

All three school trustees, who retired this year, were re-nominated for the same positions on the school board that they had held the past two years. Rudy Renzius and C. Morden Carter both qualified but Mrs. Edwards, third trustee, withdrew her name in favor of the council candidate, Dr. C. E. VanderVoort and Mrs. N. L. Mathews both qualified as candidates for the school board for a total of four candidates for the three positions on the board.

Fred S. Thompson and William Dunn were acclaimed to the hydro electric commission. Only eight women and 41 men, including candidates, were present at the nomination meeting. Clerk Wesley Brooks was chairman.

HEAR REPORTS BY CANDIDATES AT H.S. MEET

Mrs. N. L. Mathews, nominated as school board trustee, is the third woman to be nominated to the public school board in recent years. Mrs. J. C. R. Edwards, nominated this year for council, and Mrs. A. H. Woods had previously served as public school trustees.

Mrs. Mathews, with Rudy Renzius and C. Morden Carter, trustees the last two years, and Dr. C. E. VanderVoort were nominated for the three positions vacant on the board.

In accepting her nomination, Mrs. Mathews said she was anxious to serve and that she believed her past experience in the Home and School Association would enable her to be of service on the board. Mr. Carter said that there was room for improvement in removing fire hazards in the schools. He praised the principals for the prompt way in which the schools were cleared when the fire alarm sounded.

Mr. Renzius pointed out the introduction of salary schedules for teachers and the provision of materials for handicraft in the schools had been made by the last year's board of which he was a member. Dr. VanderVoort said that he believed it the duty of every citizen to serve in public office if asked and that his experience with educational matters had directed him towards service on the school board.

The Newmarket Veterans' Association meets tonight in the municipal building at the corner of Main and Botsford Sts. Veterans are asked to attend in as large a number as possible.

The Newmarket Era and Express office is open Saturday afternoons from 2 to 4 o'clock for the benefit of out of town patrons.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 29, 1945

EIGHT WOMEN, 41 MEN

Eight women and 41 men from a voting population of 2,000 attended the nomination meeting for the Newmarket town council, the public school board, and the hydro-electric commission in the Newmarket town hall Friday night. Eight women and 41 men from a voting population of 2,000. It is a disgrace, an abiding disgrace for it was the same last year and the year before, and unless the citizens of Newmarket awaken to their duty, it will be the same next year.

Eight women and 41 men. The men and women who were nominated Friday night are candidates for the most responsible jobs in the town, governing it. And the citizens of Newmarket are so little concerned with how their affairs are run that of 2,000 of them, eight women and 41 men are all that bothered to attend.

What is wrong with the rest of them? What do they expect? Do they think that all they have to do is to wait for someone to step forward, mark a ballot in his favor, and go home for supper? If that is their conception of citizenship, the blood that has been shed to free man from the despot was wasted, the principles of democracy are empty ones, and self government a farce.

Ask yourself this, you citizens of Newmarket who couldn't be bothered to attend a nomination meeting, ask yourself if you have the right to participate in the ordering of your own affairs. Ask yourself if you have the right to grouch about what isn't done and to protest what is done. Ask yourself if you have even the right to mark your ballot. For all the attention you give to improving your community is provided by that little group, eight women and 41 men who attended the nomination meeting.

You have forgotten that self government is government by everyone. You have forgotten that these men who perform the duties of citizenship by offering themselves as candidates for municipal office are acting in the name of all of you. You have forgotten that you are as much responsible to them as they are to you.

Newmarket has been fortunate in that there have always been those who were willing to accept the responsibilities of municipal government. Newmarket has been most fortunate in that they have been, whatever else their faults, sincere in the performance of their duties. They are deserving of all praise. Their task has been a thankless one, and their duties have been increasingly arduous as the interest and support of the citizens have waned. But there will come a day when there will be none with the same high motives to do the job. What then? Government by a political machine? Inevitably.

The citizens of the town of Newmarket want new sewers. They want better roads. They want improved schools. They want all the advantages of a live, modern community. They will never have them unless they are willing to work for them. Let them at least redeem the farce of nomination night by everyone of them turning out on election day.

VOTERS CALL TUNE

In this election, it will be the voters that call the tune. For the first time in some years, there are enough candidates for the voter to choose from among them the ones he thinks will put into effect the sort of program that he wants for the coming year. In the past, most of the council has stood for re-election and there have been only two or three new candidates. This year there are five. There will be no pressure on the voter this year to send back the old council because there was no one else he could vote for. This time, it is the voters who will name the platform and elect the men to carry it out.

Do the citizens of Newmarket want industrial expansion? Do they want a community recreation program? Do they want to build a new wing on the high school? Do they want new sidewalks, better lighting, increased use of the Memorial Arena for community projects, a tax rate adjusted to present income? Every citizen has a private list of what he thinks should be done. Here is his chance to elect the ones to do it.

There have been few changes in the personnel of the Newmarket town council in past years. There has been small opportunity for the voters to indicate through the polls their approval or disapproval of the actions of council. The opportunity to do so which is afforded by the number of candidates should be welcomed by past members of council as well as the voters. Being a member of council has been a thankless task because there has been no way for the councillors to know definitely if they were interpreting the will of the majority of citizens whose interests they are bound to serve.

The fact that so few new candidates were nominated was more an indication of unwillingness of citizens to serve than an indication of approval for past councillors. The fact they were re-elected was less an indication of approval than an indication of the lack of substitutes. This year, however, with the wide choice offered by ten candidates for six seats, re-election of councillors will be definite indications of public approval of their actions. It will demonstrate the full measure of public confidence. Members of the council which is elected this year will go into office with the realization that they have been chosen by the electors on their merits, a fact that can only add to their confidence in performing their duties.

WOMEN CANDIDATES

The nomination and subsequent qualification of Mrs. J. C. R. Edwards as council candidate is a precedent in the public life of Newmarket. As near as the records show, no other woman has qualified as council candidate. Also a candidate for public office is Mrs. N. L. Mathews but her qualification as candidate for the public school board is not precedent making for women trustees have become accepted members of the board in the past five years.

It speaks well for the growing acceptance of women as equal partners of men in public affairs that the prospect of two women seeking public office has caused so little comment. It was not always that way. Ten years ago, even despite the freedom and recognition won by women, the prospect of women in municipal politics would be greeted with horror by the vast majority of men in Newmarket, and, let it be admitted, a goodly share of the women. While most women now support the idea, it is to the discredit of the opposite sex that there are still many men sufficiently narrow to oppose such activity with even the most underhand methods.

Both women have experience in public affairs. Mrs. Edwards has been a member of the public school board for five years, chairman for one year. She has been active in the formation of the Home and School Association in Newmarket which had such an important role in providing Newmarket with a public health nurse. Mrs. Mathews has served with distinction on the various public committees in Newmarket. A past president of the Home and School Association, she is now president of the Newmarket branch of the Women's Institute. Her work in the Soldiers' club is well known.

The fact that both women have offered their services in public office should encourage the women of Newmarket to take a more active part in municipal affairs. The women in town are as much citizens as their husbands, municipal affairs are as much their concern as their husbands'. In the past, they have paid less attention to public business. With the examples of Mrs. Edwards and Mrs. Mathews before them, let them step forward to assume their full share of community responsibility.

SPENDING MONEY

In his address of acceptance following his acclamation as mayor, Dr. L. W. Dales said that in the past too much attention had been paid to tax-rates and assessment and not enough attention paid to providing the community with services. Many communities are content to get along with the minimum of essential services, and in return, the taxpayer has a low tax rate.

At times, Newmarket has shown the same attitude. It was evident when the budget for last year was brought down with a tax rate lower by four mills than the year before. There was a saving for the tax-payer, it was true, but it was false saving. In return for a few dollars saved in his annual taxes, the tax-payer was refused local improvements. The cry, "there is not enough money to pay for it," was too often heard in council.

J. L. Spillette, acclaimed deputy-reeve for this coming year, chairman of the finance committee for last year, was able to add to the low budget with found money from back taxes, of which he was an active and aggressive collector. He has performed a public service by reducing the debts owed the town. But the sums he has collected in this way are in no way sufficient to make up the loss suffered from a reduced tax rate.

Newmarket needs many additional public services. An enlarged library, for example, or a sewage disposal plant, improved roads and sidewalks, the removal of open ditches, community recreation, dental care in the schools, housing, the list can go on endlessly. Some are more important than others but whatever comes first, public money is needed to provide them. It is the council's duty to save the town needless expense but it is equally the council's duty to be prepared to spend public money for the benefit of the town.

The ratepayers of Newmarket can afford to pay a higher tax rate now than, say, five years ago. They can better afford necessary improvements now than at a later date when incomes will have dropped. An additional incentive to public spending is the generous provision of government grants to municipalities. Never were opportunities for municipal spending better. Let Newmarket show that it can take wise advantage of the situation by providing those services which are so necessary to a happy and prosperous community.

WHAT IS RECREATION?

There is some evidence of misunderstanding about "community recreation" as the term is used in most public addresses. Community recreation is no more nor less than the words imply. It is the provision of recreational facilities for every member of the community, from the checkers players to the children in rompers.

There has been increasing attention paid to recreation because of the changing conditions in which we live. At one time, when housing was less a problem, there were none of the crowded homes there are today. Most children had ample room to play in. Nowadays, families of three and four are forced to live in two or three rooms. There can be no facility for healthful play under those conditions.

But there are other reasons to urge the development of community recreation. We have learned that to put on long pants does not mean that we must stop playing, that we must give up the pleasure we had in sports and hobbies, because we are too busy earning a living. The working-man of today has more leisure than in the past and indications are that his working hours are going to be decreased even more. What is he going to do with his spare time? Waste it sitting on his back porch, or use it in pleasant and healthy activities. Community recreation is the means to the latter end.

How to go about it? Community recreation does not necessarily require the construction of buildings. The means are right at hand. There is the arena, there is the park, there are the facilities of churches and schools. Community recreation is the organization of all these means towards the one end, that of providing the maximum in pleasure and healthy activity for the largest number of people.

The success enjoyed at the Lions club park last summer where children had a six-week organized recreation program, and the fact so many turn out for community projects such as the ice show, demonstrate that the citizens of Newmarket want more of that kind of recreation. Its dividends are apparent in fostering of a greater sense of community spirit, healthier and happier children, and providing citizens with a place to go where they can enjoy themselves.

LETTERS TO EDITOR

Editor, The Era and Express: I have wanted to write and tell you of this for some time, but hesitated, fearing it might perhaps do more harm than good. Children running wild with hatchets this autumn have left terrific scars on nearly every tree in the west end of town. I know they were children because I saw them at it. Lovely hard maples in the west end have been badly gashed and scarred.

Can you think of any way to impress on children the fact that it takes a beautiful hard maple about 30 years to grow its full size and that such a scar retards a tree's growth for a long, long time—and might end in killing the tree? I have not expressed myself very well but there it is. What can we do?

GOSPEL ECHOES

A GREAT INTERRUPTION By REV. L. JAMES LAKE Gospel Tabernacle

A few weeks before our marriage my wife received from one of her wealthy, retired uncles a letter. (He had been such a phenomenal success that he had retired from active business life at the age of 40. He has since devoted his entire time to relieving the poor and making known a truth which was very near to his heart.) The letter told us that we, as a Christian couple, could not live nor assume the same attitude toward material things and the world as young people of the world.

Many times during the 16 intervening years a clause which he used has flashed through my mind. "There is coming a great interruption from heaven." What will this mean? To a perplexed world—"The government shall be upon His shoulders"; to suffering Christians—"no more pain; to you—if you are His, His glorious abode; to you—if you are not His, eternal banishment from His presence."

Friend, tarry with me in these few fleeting minutes, allowing to enter into the recesses of your innermost being this tremendous truth. "There is coming a great interruption from heaven into the affairs of men." Away unbelief, the Book of ages had said when, how and why He would come the first time. It is recorded history now that all prophecies were minutely fulfilled. Fellow creature of time, may I remind you that God has declared that the thousands of promises concerning His second coming will likewise be literally fulfilled.

Are you prepared in God's way for Christ's second coming? Is some earnest soul saying, "How may I make this preparation?" Cast yourself upon the mercy and grace of God. Come to Him acknowledging your need of His life and power and pray the prayer of the publican, "God be merciful to me, a sinner," even though you may not feel you are one. "For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son that whosoever believeth on Him should not perish, but have everlasting life." John 3: 16.

MR. GROSBEAK

By GOLDEN GLOW

If any of my readers were as fortunate as myself and two of my neighbors, they had a visit from the evening grosbeaks this past week. Since the downfall of snow we have seen no more of them but we surely had a grand visit from them just before the snow came.

They arrive at irregular intervals during the winter, so we may see them again any time—you never know. If there are any soft maple trees in your neighborhood then the chances are you may have a visit from them and I assure you that you will be thrilled, for they are beautiful birds. Mr. Grosbeak is especially handsome when flying. His mate is more quietly colored, a brownish gray, tinged with yellow. They are a thick-set bird, not quite as large as a starling, with a black crown, yellow forehead and body with black wings and black tail with white markings.

I said that Mr. Grosbeak was especially handsome when flying but when feeding on the ground they are rather difficult to see unless you look for the distinct V's formed in yellow on its back when its wings are closed. It hails from the Arctic and with the coming of warmer weather, it returns there. It is really a rare bird and no wonder folks appreciate a visit from a flock of them. It has a heavy, thick bill and that is how it acquired its name of grosbeak.

THE COMMON ROUND By HAZEL INGLIS COLLINS

CARE OF CLOTHING

That title sounds a bit pretentious for one, but it's not me but Miss Collins of the department of agriculture, Women's Institute Branch, who is doing the talking.

The beginning of a new day has always a certain amount of excitement, for who knows what of good or ill it may bring forth. When there is added to this a speaker for the Women's Institute to talk to us, there is a definite uplift in one's greeting of the morning. To the women who live in rural areas, there is a distinct challenge in leaving home for the day. This has to be done and that attended to, so each may listen to the speaker without wondering if the fires have been properly dampered, or if some one will remember some particular thing about the dinner.

But this year I climbed into the car with Mrs. Frank Williams and Mrs. G. McClure without a qualm, knowing that friendly hands were at the wheel at home, and I could enjoy the crisp autumn air and pleasant companionship on the way to the United church in Aurora. Arrived at our destination, Miss Collins arranged us round a long table, which was fine for writing.

She passed around pictures of various space-savers and closets in houses, particularly old ones where clothes closets were practically nil, and suggested we make a collection of suggestions for efficiency in the home. She said that as keys are always being lost, it was a good thing to have them on a key board in some easily accessible place. Order is the first law in the home, but if there are no facilities for tidiness, you cannot expect anyone to be tidy. Children should be made to feel important, but they must also be taught to respect other people's rights. Then Miss Collins went on to the seasonal care of clothes.

In order to store garments from one season to another, it's necessary to protect them from insects, wrinkling and stretching. Heavy, fur-trimmed garments should be hung on PADDED hangers and stored in sealed bags.

Soft silk or knitted garments are folded carefully with paper between folds and stored in chests or trunks. Linen or cottons are best stored in a dry place. Rubber goods should be stored in the coolest place in the house. Expensive furs are best stored with a furrier but if kept at home, put in sealed bags in a cool place, free from moisture.

Injury from moths or beetles takes place almost entirely between May and early October. Cleanliness is an absolute essential in moth control, as are sunning, airing and brushing. All clothes closets should be treated with kerosene or a good fly spray, especially round baseboard and floor cracks.

Then came the luncheon period and Jean Williams and I started out to find a place to refresh the inner woman. Easier said than done! We reached the restaurant of our choice, only to see a group of women, somewhat sad looking, coming from it. "No use going in there," said they, after the manner of a Greek chorus. We went to where we saw another restaurant—and behold—"Closed" confronted us. We went on, colder and hungrier than ever, than on to our last hope. "Do you see what I see?" asked Jean. "Closed," said I, and we had just decided to buy a bun and sit on the sidewalk and eat it when I suggested the hotel. "Of course," agreed my companion in distress and so went there only to be told "We don't serve meals." This was the last straw but just as we were about to faint in each other's arms on some inhospitable doorstep, the clerk said try the dairy at the corner. Try it we did and instead of freezing and starving, we ate and got warm, and in a better frame of mind returned to Miss Collins.

We learned how to tell materials. To test if wool be wool: (1) It feels wiry and elastic and springs back when released after being squeezed. (2) Burns slowly and leaves crisp balls of ash. Caustic soda or lye in one percent strength destroys wool, some water softeners do not destroy wool, but turn white to yellow. Pure silk feels smooth, soft and light, is elastic and does not crush in the hand. It too, leaves crisp balls of ash. Cotton is destroyed by strong acids. Linen too, is destroyed by strong acids. If linen is repeatedly ironed in a crease, it will crack. For this reason it's a good plan to change the creases, and it is also better rolled than folded. The microscope test of linen is the only real test, although our grandmothers' way of putting a drop of water on the fabric is fairly good as linen absorbs the water immediately and cotton does not. If ink is dropped on linen it leaves a round spot, on cotton it is irregular.

Rayon is a synthetic fibre. (1) Viscose and cuprammonium rayons burn like cotton. (2) Acetate ignites readily, appears to melt and leaves a hard, black shiny residue. (3) Touch the edge of material with a hot iron, if it melts, it's acetate. In washing wool, silk or rayons, never use HOT water and rinse thoroughly. For wool use the same temperature for ALL processes and use a very mild soap. Crepe garments which shrink should be measured before washing and stretched to original size. If washed silks and rayons become limp, give them a new look with a solution of gum arabic. One tablespoon to a quart of boiling water, strain and add three quarts of lukewarm water and use as starch. Velvet, velor and plush may be steamed over a kettle or bath tub. Never wash gloves not marked washable. As the afternoon progressed, I think we all felt increasingly that the day had been worth while and that the Women's Institute never fails its adherents, and that as long as it has leaders like Miss Collins, people will listen, learn and DO.

The Reason You Can Buy With Confidence
at INSLEY'S STORE

We had 18 years' experience with one of the largest organizations in Canada, purchasing and advertising men's and boys' clothing for the people of Canada to wear. What they wanted, when they wanted it. In styles they wanted and advertised the way they wanted it. Creating new styles and having them designed to suit the men and boys of Canada from coast to coast. For example, Sanforizing and Neva-Wet work clothing was never known in Canada before 1933 or 1934 until introduced by Cliff Insley, and look how these two items have gone forward today. The rural people will remember the picture of the duck saying, "Neva-Wet sheds water like a duck's back. A garment will not shrink 1%, etc". Today the same process is introduced in all wool dress socks and will follow in woollens of all kinds. In those early days we could see what Sanforizing and Neva-Wet process would mean to the welfare of the people of Canada in the future.

BANK OF MONTREAL

Reports-

More than a million Canadians keep their money safe at the B of M. Each of the Bank's 1,400,000 deposit accounts is an expression of trust in this 128-year-old institution. The money on deposit, totalling $1,613,000,000, is being constantly employed for the financial needs of the nation, of business, and of citizens in every walk of life.

Business firms and private citizens from the Atlantic to the Pacific have, during the year, borrowed and repaid many millions of dollars from the B of M. Now standing at $230,000,000, the Bank's loans oil the wheels of commerce and industry... speed their expansion... create employment... and help Canadians in their personal day-to-day financing.

Well over one hundred thousand individual Canadians—plumbers and painters, truck drivers and trappers, doctors and dentists, business men and business women—turned to the B of M during the last twelve months for a personal loan when extra money was needed to take advantage of an opportunity or meet an emergency. Ninety-four people out of every hundred who asked for money got it.

To buy seed, to market crops, to improve their farms, grain growers, cattle and poultry raisers, fruit growers and fur breeders—farmers in every line of agriculture—borrow at the B of M. Money which farmers borrow not only brings comfort and prosperity to agricultural communities, but, by enabling farmers to produce more, contributes to the prosperity and welfare of the whole nation.

In financing the needs of government and of business, the Bank shares heavily by investment in government and other bonds and securities. Throughout the war these investments have increased tremendously and today they amount to well over a billion dollars. The majority of these are edge securities, maturing at early dates, and are readily marketable.

RESOURCES WHICH THE B of M HAS TO MEET ITS OBLIGATIONS:

CASH: The B of M has cash in its vaults and money on deposit with the Bank of Canada amounting to	$ 161,907,891.42
MONEY in the form of notes, checks on, and deposits with other banks (payable on demand or at short notice)	124,083,250.42
INVESTMENTS: The B of M has well over one billion dollars invested in high-grade government bonds and other securities, which have a ready market. The majority of them will be paid in full at early dates. Listed on the Bank's books at a figure not greater than their market value, they amount to	1,117,604,002.88
STOCKS of industrial and other companies form but a small part of the Bank's holdings (actually only 1 1/2% of all its investments). Valued at no more than the market price, they amount to	333,993.60
CALL LOANS: The B of M has call loans (loans payable on demand) which are well protected by quickly saleable securities. These loans amount to	60,417,105.51
QUICKLY AVAILABLE RESOURCES: The resources listed above, all of which can quickly be turned into cash, cover 89.44% of all that the Bank owes to its depositors and others. These "quick assets" amount to	$1,664,326,243.90
LOANS: During the year, millions of dollars have been loaned to business firms, to farmers, to fishermen—to citizens in all walks of life, and to Provincial and Municipal Governments and School Districts. These loans now amount to	220,264,311.15
BANK BUILDINGS: In hamlets, villages, towns and large cities from coast to coast the B of M serves its customers at 370 offices. The value of the buildings owned by the Bank, together with furniture and equipment, is shown on its books at	10,571,510.18
OTHER ASSETS: These chiefly represent liabilities of customers for commitments made by the Bank on their behalf, covering foreign and domestic trade transactions, totalling $16,895,827.58.	20,772,125.26
TOTAL RESOURCES WHICH THE B of M HAS TO MEET ITS OBLIGATIONS	$1,715,934,320.49

WHAT THE B of M OWES TO OTHERS:

DEPOSITS: Business firms, manufacturers, merchants, farmers and private citizens, numbering well over a million, have money on deposit with the B of M. These deposits amount to	$1,613,028,705.46
BANK NOTES: B of M bills in circulation, which are payable on presentation, amount to	6,619,026.90
OTHER LIABILITIES: Miscellaneous items, representing mainly commitments undertaken on behalf of customers in their foreign and domestic trade transactions, totalling $10,895,827.58.	17,144,653.99
TOTAL OF WHAT THE B of M OWES ITS DEPOSITORS AND OTHERS	$1,637,492,388.05
TO PAY ALL IT OWES, THE B of M HAS TOTAL RESOURCES, AS SHOWN ON THE LEFT SIDE OF THIS STATEMENT, AMOUNTING TO	1,715,934,320.49
WHICH MEANS THAT THE B of M HAS RESOURCES, OVER AND ABOVE WHAT IT OWES, AMOUNTING TO	$ 78,741,931.44
This figure of $78,741,931.44 is made up of money subscribed by the shareholders who own the Bank and, to some extent, of profits which have from time to time been ploughed back into the business to broaden the Bank's services.
PROFITS: After making provision for contingencies and after providing $579,810.48 for depreciation of Bank premises, furniture and equipment, the B of M reports a profit for the twelve months to October 31st, 1945, of	$5,719,681.58
Taxes under the Income and Excess Profits Taxes Acts are estimated at	2,785,000.00
Leaving a net profit of	$2,934,681.58
Of this amount, shareholders (paid dividends at the rate of 60 cents a year for each $10 share of the Bank) received or will receive	2,160,000.00
Thus, the net amount to be added to the balance of profits from previous years' operations is	$ 774,681.58
Balance in the Profit and Loss Account at October 31st, 1944, amounted to	2,113,821.32

ORGANIZING SPORTS

By ORVILLE GANTON

Physical culture is a matter of national importance. Everyone should consider it his duty to widen the popularity of sport and thereby to improve the health of the people and harden them physically so all will be useful citizens. Let's make this new generation healthy, buoyant in spirit, able to make our country a tower of strength.

Ontario is a natural amphitheatre for such fine non-competitive sports as skiing, riding, hiking, cycling, rowing, yachting, fishing, hunting and many others. Newmarket is surrounded with ideal locations for the establishment of skiing stations, hunting lodges and other facilities for recreation. Through lack of organization the average person is unable to take advantage of this natural boon.

Many workers who labor at tedious and monotonous occupations never have a chance for some rational recreation and fun. Almost every boy owns a bicycle yet one never sees cycling excursions organized for the boys. An expert wheelsman recently told me he would be glad to give our school children free lessons and demonstrations on safety riding. Unfortunately, I was unable to advise him whom he should contact to make his splendid offer.

Apart from physical culture there is no end to the variety of cultural activities that can be organized through art and craft guilds. Newmarket has many fine artists, who I am sure, would be willing to help any well organized movement for the cultural improvement of our youth. Personally I have observed that an interest in classical music and literature, is considered an affectation by many working class people. This attitude towards the arts is understandable; our lives are governed by harsh economic factors that reduce leisure and interest to simple and crude pleasures.

All these pleasures can be made available to everyone. After years of teaching and through careful observation and study, I believe the time has now come for community organization and co-ordination of all recreational services in the town of Newmarket. Next week I will outline a plan.

If Cows Could Talk

They'd Tell You How To Get MORE MILK

IF your Dairy Cows are to do their BEST, you've got to help them.

IF COWS COULD TALK, they'd tell you that besides the usual but important requirements such as milking at regular hours — fresh, clean water at all times, allowance of at least six weeks for a dry period; they must have all the MINERALS, PROTEINS, VITAMINS and other milk and body building ingredients so essential to successful milk production. MINERALS in the diet of the dairy cow are very important. Lack of these minerals means — lowered milk production — lack of vitality — and weaknesses of leg and framework. SHUR-GAIN 16% DAIRY RATION is packed full of the very ingredients that cows must have to keep them healthy and producing profitably.

TRY SHUR-GAIN 16% DAIRY RATION TODAY, for better nutrition of your dairy herd and be assured that they are receiving adequate supplies of PROTEINS, MINERALS and VITAMINS to satisfy their needs.

IT'S LOW IN COST BUT HIGH IN QUALITY — TRY IT TODAY!

FORUM URGES STUDY OF APPLIED FERTILIZERS

By MRS. W. H. WILMIOT,
Press Secretary

The Newmarket East Radio Farm Forum met Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Eves. The subject of discussion was "Poor soil produces poor food." Soil testing, done some years ago and last year, informed members as to deficiencies in the soil but a study of the constituents of applied fertilizers should be made. Better drainage system, soil conservation, weed control, rotation of crops and specialized farming result in better soil practice. Members belonging to the 500-bushel potato club had learned a great deal by practical experience.

Most livestock receive balanced ration, but not so with poultry. Causes and remedies of deficiencies were discussed at length and much knowledge gained. It was resolved we should know more of the nutritious varieties of grain, vegetables and fruit so as to produce a perfect diet. Careful methods of cooking and conservation of all juices, the use of fruits and vegetables in the natural state were advocated.

"Are farm people healthy?" the topic for next meeting, should prove very interesting and informative. Ross Armstrong led a spirited discussion on "How can we as forum members become a part of Newmarket District Co-operative?" It is to be continued. A tasty lunch was served by our hostess, Mrs. Eves, assisted by Grace Allison and Lorna Linstead.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a light wool dress of salmon pink with a corsage of matching roses, and blue accessories. Her only attendant was her sister-in-law, Mrs. T. H. Stephens, who wore blue. The best man was the twin brother of the bride, Robert Stephens.

HEALTH NOTES

Malnutrition in Children
Reliable authorities have found that one of every three children suffer from malnutrition. This is a great handicap upon the health and happiness of the rising generation. It is also a barrier to success in adult life. In almost every case the causes of this unfitness could have been discovered and corrected during school life and the children could have grown into normal, healthy adults. Children suffering from malnutrition are retarded from one to three years in their development.

Causes of Malnutrition
(1) Physical defects, especially obstruction of the nasal passage. The removal of the physical handicaps makes the child free to gain the benefits of better feeding.

(2) Lack of home control. A child who is not disciplined invariably has bad health habits that may lead to malnutrition.

(3) Over-fatigue from lack of sleep, too much play, excitement or late hours.

(4) Faulty feeding, improper food and wrong food habits such as eating hurriedly or when over-tired.

(5) Bad health habits such as lack of out-door play or insufficient sleep.

Undernourishment may readily be produced by over-feeding of unsuitable food. If a child is over-fed unsuitable food the appetite fails.

The main principle to keep in mind in the feeding of growing children is that they should not be allowed to form the habit of deriving too large a part of their diet from meat, bread, sugar and breakfast cereals.

SERVING AURORA AND DISTRICT

Summon Veterans To Organize Local Association Dec. 10

Headed by Major N. F. Johnson, veteran of both wars, a provisional committee of veterans of this and the last war are busy sending out invitations to a grand rally of Aurora and district veterans of both wars in Mechanics' Hall on Monday, December 10, when it is hoped to form an Aurora War Veterans' association. The committee which is arranging the meeting consists of N. F. Johnson, John Sisman, Martin Southwood, T. A. M. Hulse and George Walker.

Considerable enthusiasm has been shown in recent weeks by veterans of both wars for reorganization, and the question of whether or not the local organization will become affiliated with the Canadian Legion will be brought up at the meeting for full and frank discussion. A program is being arranged that will be of vital interest to all veterans.

The invitations are being sent out to veterans of the last war from a list prepared by the Aurora War Veterans' Association.

The list for this war is being taken from the official list prepared by the Aurora town council and citizens' committee. Both groups realize that there is a distinct possibility that many names have been omitted. Any veterans who have not resided in the municipality long, should forward their names to the committee. Veterans of the last war should leave their names with George Walker at the Aurora post office, and veterans of this war should contact Mr. Hulse at 11 Wellington St., telephone Aurora 151. All veterans regardless of whether or not they receive an invitation through the mail are urged to attend.

"While not a veteran of either war, I believe the formation of a strong veterans' association will be a great thing not only for the veterans and their families but the town as well," said Mayor Ross Linton. "We are going to have to look for civic leadership in all fields to those who served their country. The council of Aurora is whole heartedly behind the plan."

Fire Brigade To Play Host At Supper For Veterans

On Thursday, Dec. 6, the Aurora Fire Brigade will play hosts to veterans of the war who are at home in Aurora at a turkey supper in the Mechanics' Hall. Boys who have not as yet come home will be similarly honored in a few months time.

The brigade is sending Christmas boxes to many of its members still overseas, and cigars to other Aurora boys. An evening of entertainment has been arranged with a concert party from Toronto providing the high spots.

"We are glad to do our part in honoring those who have given their best for us," said Chief Harry Jones. "If anyone who has returned does not receive an invitation, it will be an oversight and we will see they are looked after later. It is pretty hard not to miss some and we hope all will understand. If possible they can contact our secretary, Chester Osborne, before next week." Around 175 persons or more are expected to attend.

Action By Business Men To Get Industries Urged

"Owing to the fact that there are at least five banquets arranged for December, and with the holiday season, lodge and municipal meetings interfering, we have decided to postpone the dinner and election of officers of the Aurora Board of Trade until January," President Dr. E. J. Henderson said. Jan. 16 has been tentatively set as the date of the meeting. A bingo will be held with fowl as prizes in December with the proceeds going to the organization's war memorial fund.

"I would like to see some strong action taken to secure a new industry for Aurora," said Dr. Henderson. "We can do a lot more than we are doing in the matter and I hope when the board holds its meeting in January we can get something better than we have going in this regard. You can't leave it all to council, the business men must do their part."

CAR SMASHES BRICK PILLAR OF HOTEL

Proceeding north on Yonge St. on Sunday afternoon, intending to turn east on Wellington St., teen-age Harry Cameron of 818 Broadview Ave., Toronto, driver of a borrowed automobile, lost control of the vehicle. The car went over the curb on the north side of Wellington St., flattened a stop sign and smashed a brick pier on the side verandah of the Queen's Hotel. Car damage and property damage were about equal.

Cameron had borrowed the car from the owner, Buster Feeney, of West Ave., Toronto, and was accompanied by several other youths. Chief Constable Fisher, Dunham and County Constable Aubrey Fleury investigated.

AURORA, HILL TIED IN SOCCER SERIES

Aurora and Richmond Hill high school soccer teams are still tied in their current series. Last Thursday Aurora visited the Hill, and a rugged game in the coldest weather of the year ensued. Jack Monkman got the only goal of the first half for Aurora. Half-way through the second period, Atkinson scored the equalizer for the Hill as his shot hit the post, and bounded off Bill McGhee into the Aurora goal.

Despite several attempts, neither side could break the tie. Bunn, Simmons, Mundell and Monkman looked best for Aurora. Hood, Atkinson and Tennyson were best for the Hill. Ab. Hulse handled the game.

Maj. A. H. Woods Named C. C. F. Council Member

Dr. and Mrs. G. A. C. Gunton attended the sessions of the Ontario C.C.F. party in Toronto last week. Major and Mrs. A. H. Woods, Newmarket, Miss Edna Izzard, Richmond Hill, were among the delegates from the north part of the riding. Major Woods, who was the C.C.F. candidate in the last federal election, was elected to the provincial council of the C.C.F.

A.P.S. SOCCER TEAM SCORES TWO VICTORIES

Aurora public school soccer team scored two impressive wins last week. On Thursday they defeated Pickering College juniors with Ted Dobson getting three goals and Grant Preston completing the rout. On Friday the boys came back to defeat St. Andrew's College juniors, 2-0, with Hugh McKee and Leo Anthony doing the scoring honors for the locals. Delroy Babcock handled the whistle for both contests.

Over 20 members of Elma Rebekah lodge journeyed by bus on Monday night to Sutton to attend Riverview Lodge, where Mrs. J. Courtney, president of the Rebekah Assembly of Ontario, was conducting a school instruction.

TOWN FATHERS FAVOR EARLY ELECTION DAY

Next year, if the ideas of the majority of the present members of the Aurora town council prevail, Aurora will likely advance its nomination and election date from the last Monday in December and the first Monday in January to the second last Friday in November and the first Monday in December.

It is pointed out that of the 26 municipalities in York township, 17 now hold early elections and it is felt it will only be a matter of time until all the municipalities are on the same footing.

"I think all municipalities in the county should be on the same schedule," said Reeve C. E. Sparks. "It is beneficial to the county members to know where they stand before the December sitting closes. It has been found satisfactory elsewhere and gets away from the holiday season when most people don't want to be bothered with elections. Most of this year's council favor the change and if the majority of the present councillors go back, I expect the date will be advanced by by-law."

"I am in favor of the idea," said Deputy-Reeve A. A. Cook. "Other municipalities have found it works well and I think we should profit by experience. New Year's Day voting takes place in Toronto and several of the bigger townships near Toronto but we are not faced with the same problem as they are so far as getting out the vote. Our fiscal year ends December 15 in any case and the new council would be able to get into stride early in the year."

"If it will bring out a good vote I am in favor of it," said Councillor R. V. Smith. "I see no objection to the change and I believe that council looks on it favorably. It will be especially helpful to the reeve and deputy-reeve."

SURVEY ROUTE FOR PROPOSED BACK LANE

W. S. Gibson, town surveyor, has been in town this week taking bearings on the proposed street back of the stores on the west side of Yonge St., which would provide the stores with means of obtaining their goods without trucks parking on Yonge St.

The street would cross property owned by at least 11 or 12 owners. It is estimated there would be very little that would have to be purchased outright since most of the occupants are owners. A parcel of land owned by Fleury-Bissell of Elora skirts the west side of where the street would run. The plan when completed by Mr. Gibson will be submitted to council for consideration.

L.O.L. 643 OFFICERS FOR NEW YEAR NAMED

With a good turnout of members, L.O.L. 643, Aurora, held its annual election of officers last Thursday evening. Bro. Rev. Roy Hicks gave an address on Protestantism. The officers will be installed in December and Bro. Rev. E. C. Moddle has been announced as the guest speaker.

Wor. Bro. A. N. Fisher was re-elected worshipful master. Officers elected were: dep. master, George Mackey; chaplain, Rev. Canon F. J. Fife; dep. chaplains, Rev. Roy Hicks and Rev. T. R. White; marshal, Grant McCachen; rec. sec., Marshall Rank; fin. sec., Wm. MacGill; treas., S. C. Chapman; lecturers, Clarence Mackey and J. W. Hudson; tyler, William Patterson; first committee, Rt. Wor. Bro. W. H. Taylor.

PLAN FOR HUNT IN WHITCHURCH DEC. 8

A $2,000 bounty on foxes has been paid to over 30 persons this year by Whitchurch township clerk, John Crawford. Mr. Crawford estimates that the commercial value of the pelts averaged around $10. Foxes are prevalent in most areas of the township and farmers are complaining of their being a menace. With this in mind, headed by game warden J. H. Widdifield, township authorities are planning a fox hunt on Saturday, Dec. 8. "Enjoy a good outing in the open, and make yourself some money as well," says Mr. Crawford.

Mrs. Orval Heath is confined to York County hospital. She is progressing favorably.

Contest Seats For County Council In Eight Municipalities

Seventeen of the 26 municipalities in York County have held their nominations and in eight there will be fights for the county council seats. Chief interest locally settles on the battle being waged in King township where Reeve Thomas MacMurchy is opposed by Deputy-Reeve Lorne Goodfellow and ex-Warden Milton Legge, who has been a councillor the past five years following a varied municipal career. The contest is bound to be a close one according to the experts.

Norman MacMurchy, former reeve of the township, has re-entered township politics and will do battle with Councillor William E. Barker for the deputy-reeveship. The councillors were given an acclamation with Elton Armstrong of the 1945 council and two well-known township residents, T. A. McCutcheon and William Kehoe, being named.

Reeve Frederick Gardiner of Forest Hill Village, who was acclaimed by the voters of his municipality, is likely to be the warden of the county for 1946 according to members of the county legislature. Mr. Gardiner, who is well known throughout North York, has had an active career in council.

The name of Deputy-Reeve William I. Hearst of North York township is prominent in rumors about county commissioners. Mr. Hearst, along with Reeve George Mitchell of North York, former M.L.A. for York North, were returned by acclamation while elections occur for two other deputy-reeveships. Reeve Kenneth Thompson of Weston, who is opposed for election by A. A. Stephenson, is also seeking one of the commissioners' posts. Both Mr. Hearst and Mr. Thompson hold commissions in the county battalion, the Queen's York Rangers.

It is generally the custom to have one county commissioner from the south and one from the north. With the retirement of Warden Fred A. Lundy of Newmarket and Ross MacMillan in North Gwillimbury, Reeve C. E. Sparks of Aurora becomes senior member, but Mr. Sparks has not as yet indicated he would seek the commissionership.

William Neal, formerly of Aurora, has been returned unopposed in Richmond Hill. In Vaughan township, Boynton Wel-drick is opposed for the reeve-ship by ex-Reeve James Robson who has held a council seat the past three years. John Hostrawswe and Albert Dick are contesting the deputy-reeveship.

A. V. Nolan, publisher of the Stouffville Tribune, was given an acclamation in Stouffville, as was Reeve Walter Proctor, East Gwillimbury, Reeve Tracey Mance, Lenoir, Reeve W. E. McDonald, New Toronto, Reeve Harold Glover, North Gwillimbury, Reeve Charles Hooper, Markham township, and Reeve A. P. Wheeler, Scarborough. The latter succeeds B. L. Clutterbuck, veteran municipal figure, who retired. Mr. Wheeler fills an office once held by his grandfather who was the first reeve of the township.

With the retirement of Reeve A. D. Norris, Mimico, Deputy-Reeve Hugh Griggs fights it out with Gus Edwards, a former reeve. A hot fight is on in North Gwillimbury for the reeve-ship between Ben Johnston and William King. In Markham township, with Deputy-Reeve A. L. Clarke becoming assistant road superintendent, Dalton Runney and Albert Reesor, two council members, are seeking the office.

In the eight municipalities still to hold nominations, there will be some changes. In Georgina, Reeve John D. Sibbald has announced this will be his last year and he will not be a candidate. Prominently mentioned as a probable successor is a former reeve, Leslie Coburn, who has been in service with the R.C.A.F. Reeve George Leary of Whitechurch has also announced his retirement and Deputy-Reeve Lorne Evans will seek the reeve-ship. Councillor Edward Logan is prominently named as a candidate for the deputy-reeveship. Reeve John Watson of Woodbridge will also retire as will ex-warden Reeve Clarence Downey of Swansea, Deputy-Reeve Elmer Brandon is slated to succeed Mr. Downey with George Gering coming back to the deputy-reeveship. In York township, Deputy-Reeve W. J. Thorburn, veteran educationalist and sponsor of the county oratorical contest, will retire because of ill health. Barring election defeats there will be at least a dozen new faces in the 1946 county council, the greatest number of changes in many years.

Planned Farming To Save Land Urged By H. O. Mason

H. O. Mason of London, writer and dirt farmer, addressed the Farmers' Night meeting of the Aurora Lions club in the Masonic Hall on Tuesday evening. His subject was "Farms and Land Wastage". Around 50 farmers were guests of various members and enjoyed the dinner and program.

Bill Garfat introduced the guest speaker, while Ab. Stoltz extended a vote of thanks. Mr. Mason told of the experiences of other countries through the misuse of land, and he warned that Canada was fast approaching the saturation point in this regard. Planned farming, and reforestation as well as smaller holdings with more farmers, were suggested as solutions.

President Charles Copland was in the chair, while Lambert Wilson had charge of the program. Twelve-year-old Joyce Styles of Markham township won rounds of applause with her piano recital. Elton Armstrong extended the thanks of the guests to the Lions.

Next meeting is Dec. 13 and will take the form of an "Information Please" program.

Back From Overseas

Three well known Aurora district boys arrived home from overseas last week. They are Pte. Jack Bowser, R.C.A.M.C., Sgt. Joseph Bingham, D.C.M., of Ballintrae, and Pte. Brian Manley Jefferson.

The son of John Bowser of the Aurora Building Company, Pte. Bowser enlisted in 1943, and was for some months stationed with the signal corps at Barfield camp. He transferred to the Medical Corps to go overseas in 1944.

Sgt. Bingham enlisted and went overseas with the Canadian Armoured Corps in 1940 and saw service in both Italy and on the Western Front. He was awarded the Distinguished Conduct Medal for his heroic work in Italy. He is now visiting his mother.

Pte. Manley is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Manley, and is one of Canada's best known young composers and pianists. He went overseas in 1943 and composed the Red Patch which subsequently became the theme song of the first Canadian division. During his stay overseas he married a Scotch girl who will come to Canada in the spring. He saw service both in Italy and on the Western Front, and one of his prized possessions from overseas are some recordings of his B.B.C. broadcasts and concert performances.

Junior Farmers Guests At Service Club Lunch

The Downtown Kiwanis club, Toronto, was host at the Royal York hotel, Toronto, Nov. 21, to 60 boys of York county who were completed the projects in calf, swine and grain clubs. Also in attendance were the contestants in the public speaking contest, the club leaders and the president of York County Junior Farmers' Association, Charles Haines, Newmarket. The occasion was Agriculture Day, a day set aside when the club honors agriculture and awards the juniors from York for work well done.

After the luncheon, the Kiwanis scholarship winners were presented with scholarship certificates and $10 awards. The winners this year were Emery Miller, Newmarket; John Kennedy, Agincourt; Harold Lapp, Markham; Jim McCowan, Milliken; Allan Orr, Maple; Duncan Watson, Woodbridge; Glen Atkinson, Schomberg; Doug Marchant, Schomberg; Jesse Bryson, Woodbridge; and Miss Orphie Orr, Maple, the high boy and girl in the junior farmers' public speaking contest, were presented with $5 worth of books.

As short courses at the O.A.C. have been cancelled for this winter, the money value of the scholarships will be used for an educational tour for the winners to eastern Ontario. During the afternoon the boys were conducted on a sight-seeing trip through Terminal Warehouse.

Ottawa News-Letter

By J. E. SMITH, M.P.,
North York

The dominion-provincial conference which resumed here Monday is holding the centre of the stage this week. All the provincial premiers are in Ottawa conferring with Prime Minister King and members of the federal government. There is here a note of optimism concerning the outcome of the conference, on which depends the successful solution of many of Canada's domestic problems.

Work of parliament progressed rapidly this week. A conference of the prime minister with all party leaders has set Dec. 15 as a deadline for prorogation. To meet this deadline all legislation and work of parliament has been carefully and systematically scheduled and a definite time fixed for consideration of every measure.

Reconstruction is among Canada's number one problems today so it is not surprising that the estimates of the reconstruction department created keen interest here. Hon. C. D. Howe, minister in charge of this department, drew praise from opposition as well as government benches for his handling of the department and his mastery of all details in connection with the many projects under his direction. Canada's reconversion program is progressing, he said, and pointed out that at least 100 major products never before manufactured in Canada will be produced here when reconversion plans are completed. A few of the new products to be produced here include pre-fabricated houses, glass fabrics, large busses, plastics, yarns, resins, and many forms of chemicals. The government investment in plants and equipment during the war was $722,000,000. The minister said that by spring when the reconversion program is well under way there will be jobs for all in Canada.

Canada will not attain the goal of high employment in peacetime "unless management and labor walk up the road together," Labor Minister Mitchell said in the Commons in presenting labor department estimates.

"Bickerings and strikes will be a millstone on reconstruction, which is only possible on the basis of just and friendly partnership between capital and labor," he said. He expressed hope the Ford strike at Windsor, Ont., soon would be settled.

"The emphasis now is on freedom of the choice of jobs and employees by the worker and employer respectively. Regimentation may be necessary in wartime but it is my profound conviction that it has no place in the Canadian scene in times of peace," he said.

Controls still in effect were the permit system under which a permit was required before accepting a job and the requirement of seven days' notice before quitting or dismissing. "Our ultimate objective is to change over to a national employment service to which employers and employees alike will come of their own accord," he said. "We are in a position to give service to the nation in employment matters which we believe will equal that given anywhere in the world."

Prime Minister Mackenzie King announced in the Commons the government's intention of continuing its meat rationing program "until such time as it may feel justified in adopting other measures." He said this decision had been reached in view of the "perilous" food situation facing Europe.

In answer to a question this week the Hon. Brooke Claxton, minister of health, stated that in October of this month family allowance payments totalled $19,050,972.50. This was paid to 1,334,575 families. The breakdown as to size of families shows that these payments were made to 512,659 families of one child, 368,932 families of two children, and the size of families range all the way up to payments to two families of 15 children.

What's wrong with this picture?

TWO THINGS: First, the mouthpiece of the telephone is too far away. It should be close to, and directly in front of, the lips.

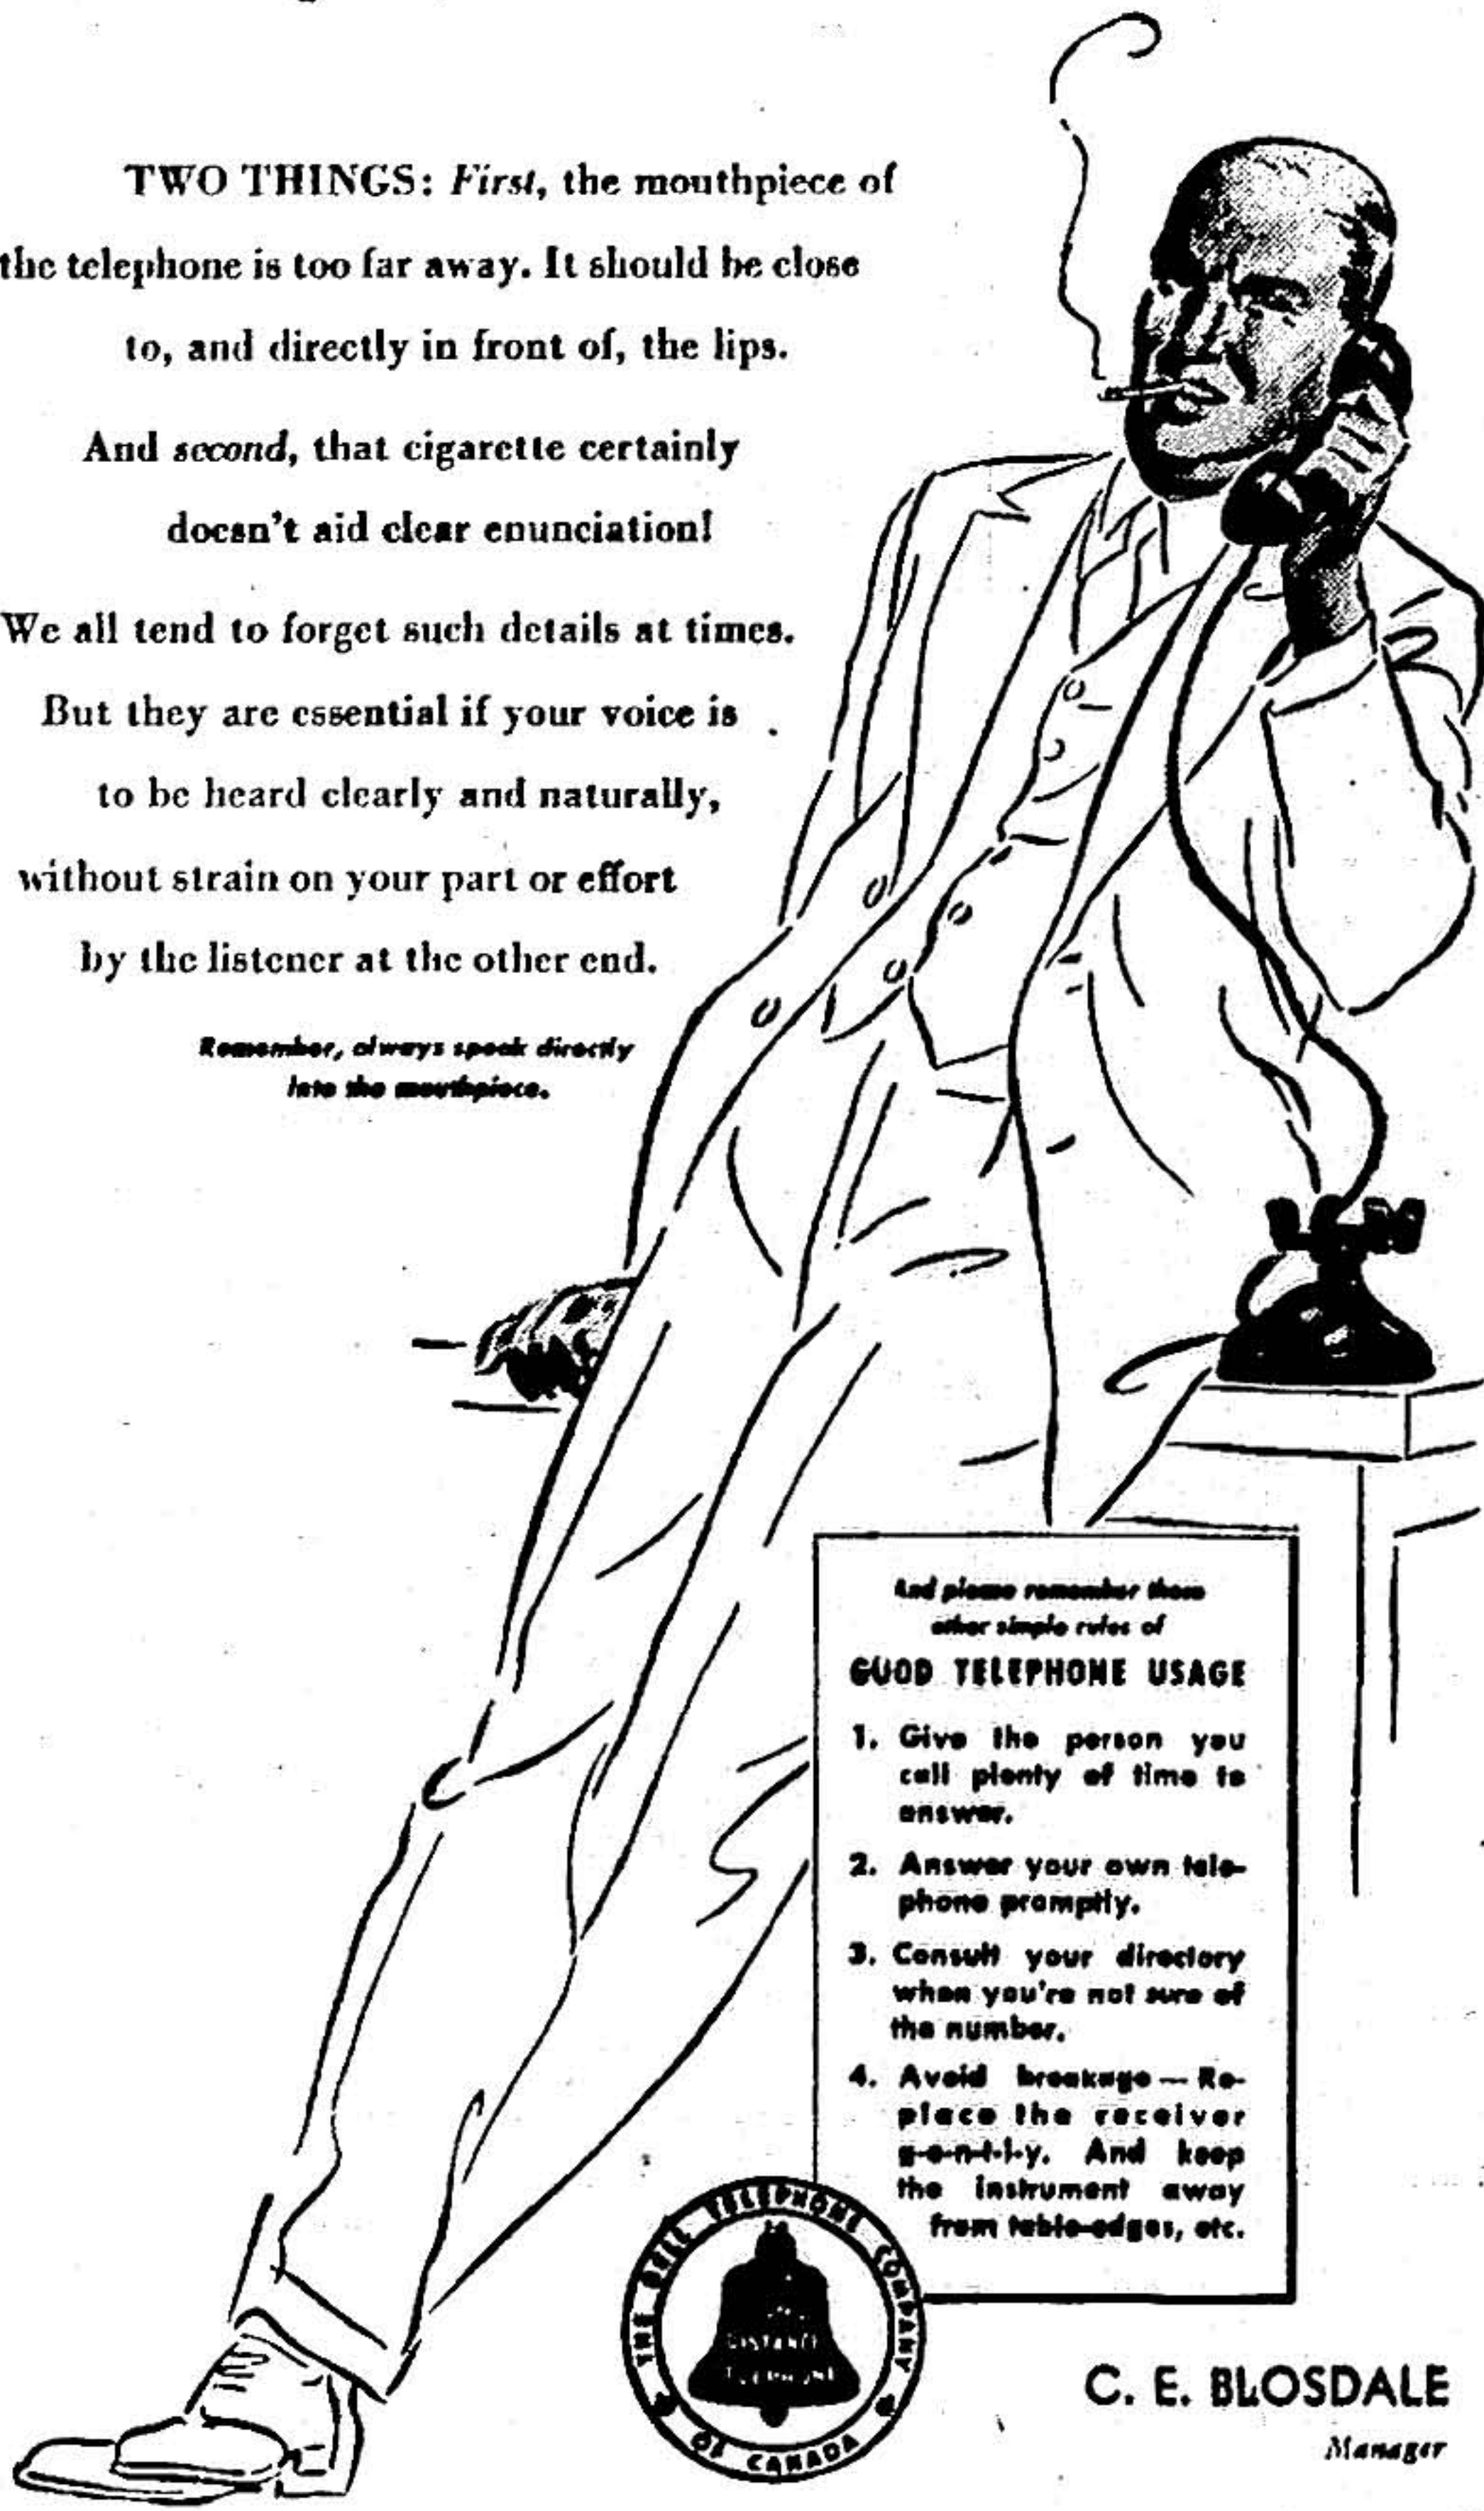

And second, that cigarette certainly doesn't aid clear enunciation!

We all tend to forget such details at times.

But they are essential if your voice is to be heard clearly and naturally, without strain on your part or effort by the listener at the other end.

Remember, always speak directly into the mouthpiece.

And please remember these other simple rules of GOOD TELEPHONE USAGE

1. Give the person you call plenty of time to answer.
2. Answer your own telephone promptly.
3. Consult your directory when you're not sure of the number.
4. Avoid breakage—Replace the receiver gently. And keep the instrument away from table-edges, etc.

BELHAVEN

QUIET WEDDING IN PARSONAGE

On Nov. 2, Jean Bernice Thompson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Thompson, Belhaven, was married to Cecil David Harrison, son of Mr. Joseph Harrison, Mount Albert, in a ceremony performed by Rev. Gordon Lapp at the Keswick United church parsonage.

The bride wore a pale blue crepe street-length dress, with metallic trim and a shoulder corsage of red roses. Miss Beth McAlpine, Toronto, bridesmaid, wore rose crepe and a shoulder corsage of Talisman roses. Don Anderson, Keswick, was best man.

For a motor trip to Algonquin Park and Ottawa, the bride wore a blue matching coat with grey fur and black accessories. The couple will live in Mount Albert.

Morton Winch, who has returned from overseas, and his wife were entertained last Friday evening at the home of his brother, Erwin Winch, Belhaven.

A large crowd filled the Belhaven community hall on Wednesday evening, Nov. 14, when a shower was held in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Harrison. DOWN THE CENTRE

Bob Hassard, promising young wing man of last year's Richmond Hill junior team, has jumped to Marlboros in junior "A" accompanying his teammate, John Sullivan. Hassard is centering the line on which Sullivan plays and both boys have won their spurs in games to date. Marlboros also dealt the Hill a blow by signing Bob Fryday, a Toronto boy, who was expected to do big things with the men of Rowntree. The Hill held a full dress practice last Saturday afternoon, and there is definitely no shortage of good material. Once again Toronto Mercantiles are in action and drawing good crowds. There are a flock of familiar faces to this area who may be seen speeding on the ice lanes. Let's take a gander at the list. Out at Ravina rink, Bill Stirling, who handled the Toronto army team last winter, is guiding the destinies of the Dorsets entry. In goal is Ron Watts of Willowdale. Watts was sought by Aurora juniors in 1939 following the withdrawal of the North York A.C. from junior hockey. He went north to South Porcupine, however, and then enlisted. He was a prisoner of war in Germany for two years. He is more than making good again.

Don Campbell, who played on the forward line for the first Brampton camp team, which ousted Newmarket in 1943, is on the forward line, and teamed with him is Clare Walsh, who played junior hockey with navy in the district junior B group navy seniors last winter. Bob Stanton, also with navy juniors and before that a thorn in the side of St. Andrew's with De La Salle, is also with Dorsets.

Jack Curtis, one of the best junior hockey players ever to play with Aurora, after four years in the army, most of it overseas, is handling the main defence post for Uptowns in the same circuit. Curtis is another upon whom Father Time has not laid a severe hand. Harold Capra, who played with Aurora in 1942 and then served with the navy, is on the Uptown forward line and is again flying although as at Aurora, getting few goals. Ken Nash, another ex-Aurora junior who played on the same edition as Capra and also served with the navy, is in action too. Ken has added quite a bit of weight.

Russ Spenceley of Stouffville-Native Sons fame, a returned vet, is another resuming play again. Lloyd Diplock, who aided Sutton Greenshirts in their successful quest of the O.H.A. intermediate title in 1942, is also with Uptowns as is Doug Adam who played for Aurora R.C.O.C. in the Aurora town league in 1943. Flash Abram, ex-Brampton-Newmarket camp, is in the nets for "Woods" of the same league, and is rated as the top goalie of the circuit. The bespectacled custodian is plenty good yet.

Jack Doyle, now attending university in Toronto, is in front of Flash, and the ex-Newmarket camp product is back in old familiar haunts. Montgomery, who toiled with Brampton camp in 1944, is also doing blueline duty. Bill Chriss, formerly of Richmond Hill juniors, is with Bowers A.C. and better than when he was a junior. Bill is fresh from a heavy season of soccer and softball where he is one of the best in both sports.

Gordy DeLaat, scoring ace of the Aurora Ordnance team, O.H.A. intermediate winners of 1943, is again with Bowers. Aside from his hockey playing, the Dutch-Canadian lad is one of Canada's most promising young er golf players.

Let's go over to Varsity Arena and once again we'll meet friends. Bobby McLaughlin who played at Runnymede with Hughie Mair, then was with Marlboros, Brampton army and Armored Corps, is the pivot of Tip Top's first scoring line. Pete Donkin is with Maher's and the ex-Aurora speedster, is teamed with Al Shill, who was one of the aces of Aurora army and an overseas veteran. Bunny Glover, of Willowdale, ex-Montreal Royals, who was popular with Aurora fans at both softball and hockey, is in civvies now and hitting the score sheet regularly for the shoemen. Bert Turney, another of the civilian stars of the Aurora army team, is at right wing for Stoney's.

Army Armstrong of Markham intermediates of '41, Hodgson, ex-Sutton Greenshirts, and Doc Dafeo, ex-Oshawa Generals and 1945 Toronto army, are teamed with Turney. As the line-ups change quite frequently there will be other additions from time to time.

Bill Roberts, who in pre-war days delighted Newmarket fans with his fancy stick-handling and sturdy body-checking for Redmen intermediates, and later was with Sutton, has not made his appearance as a player so far this year but is in the thick of things as a referee in the T.H.L. Out at Ravina rink, Busher Jackson, of the Leafs' "kid line" fame and one of the hockey greats who hit the over 200-goal mark, is officiating at Ravina rink and if anybody should be able to do a good job, it is Harvey.

Tooting the whistle in the American Association this winter and coming in for some fine press comments for his work, is Newmarket's own Bill Thoms. As will be recalled, "Sweet William," when at the peak of his career suffered illness which put him on the sidelines for most of one winter and eventually brought to a close his hockey career as a member of the Chicago Black Hawks. Bill had a tough fight both in and out of the hospital to regain his health and it was thought he would probably take a coaching berth on one of the Hawks' farm teams. We tried to find out from Joe Farrell, the Chicago public relations chief, what was scheduled for Bill, but as late as a few months ago, Farrell couldn't give the answer. Now we know. There is every reason to believe that within a year or two Bill will be second-guessing in the N.H.L. The referees in the American association are paid about the same as a player (minus big league contracts), and in the N.H.L., the officials do as well as all but the top-flight players. Thoms has the temperament, the ability, and the savior faire to make good as an official, and his many friends will be pulling for him.

Incidentally, another veteran player, Bob Gracie, who is Thoms' brother-in-law, has given up playing to concentrate on master-minding. Bob, a North Bay boy, was sheer poetry on skates and teamed up with Thoms on the West Toronto junior club, later jumping, like Bill, to the Toronto Leafs. He was with Pittsburgh Hornets and right in his stride when he packed and left for the coaching post with Hollywood Wolves in the Pacific coast league.

Eddie Mosley, who before the war was one of the most promising young riders in the Aurora Cycling club, is married now and in Toronto awaiting his discharge from the navy. The Newmarket boy will resume his post with a well known chain store.

By the way, congrats are in order for that ex-Newmarket high athlete back from overseas, Claude Kirbyson, who middle-aged it with Miss Christine Stephens of Aurora last week. It was a quiet ceremony. Best wishes from the gang, keds!

Thornhill Athletic club has re-organized for the winter and summer. An outdoor rink will be operated as usual, and meanwhile the fund for future developments goes on. Cecil Martin, who in the '20's played soccer for both Richmond Hill and Newmarket high, is president. Bart Edwards is vice-president and Art Thorne, secretary-treasurer. The committee consists of Will Dean, Geo. Kelson, Lew Reid, Geo. Nuttall, Jim Warwick, Tom Jackson and F. C. Crosby. Things will soon start to hum athletically around Thornhill.

Jack Ingoldsby has been re-instated as an amateur and the e-Leaf will play with Staffords in the senior O.H.A. series. Ingoldsby, son of a famous father, starred for De La Salle in the prep school loop, then jumped to the Leafs in his teens for a short pro career before getting his army call. He played with Brampton camp two years ago (not against Newmarket, however) and last year was with Meds. in the Camp Borden senior league. He has wisely decided to stick to amateur hockey.

Jimmy Lowe, former Aurora junior who left an opportunity for pro hockey with Detroit to join the R.C.A.F. and has since done most of his hockey playing on the west coast, is performing for New Westminster in the Pacific coast senior league, which includes Vancouver, New Westminster, Seattle and Portland.

Jimmy Ward, the old Montreal Maroon player, is coaching the Portland Eagles. Chick Webster, who once played for Newmarket camp, is on the team, as are Red Carr, who had

MOUNT-MAINPRIZE NUTIALS NOV. 21

A pretty wedding was solemnized at Queensville United church parsonage on Wednesday, Nov. 21, by Rev. Hugh Shannon when Hester May, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Mainprize, became the bride of Allan Raymond Mount, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Mount, Sharon. The bride looked lovely in a flowered silk jersey dress in powder blue background and navy accessories. She wore a corsage of carnations. Miss Helen Mainprize, sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaid and wore a dusky rose crepe dress with brown accessories and a corsage of mums. Douglas Mount, brother of the groom, acted as best man.

The bride donned an aqua blue suit with navy accessories for the honeymoon trip. On their return, the couple will reside in Sharon.

a trial with Toronto Leafs, and Eddie Shamlock, once with Marlboroughs.

Paul Thompson, who handled the Chicago Black Hawks last season, is looking after the Vancouver team. Ewart Bagg, one-time Markham high school athlete, has returned to his studies following service with the R.C.A.F. and a few weeks ago he performed for Varsity seconds in the track meet against McMaster, O.A.C. and Western U. winning the running broad jump with a leap of 20' 4". Ewart had been able to do that in North York interschool competition, he would hold the record today.

Doug Marshall, former winger of the Newmarket Redmen, who was pretty hot stuff in all sports, jumped 20' 2 1/2" back in 1926 and that mark still stands. We believe we are correct in saying that Bill Cripps unofficially bested that mark on more than one occasion when attending Newmarket high and that Marshall did too. Bill Jelley and the late Bruce Stiles must have come very close to doing so as well.

Jack Anderson, who hails from Sunderland, is performing in senior A company with Toronto Young Rangers and doing a fair chore. Cantab College will replace St. Andrew's College in the Toronto and district prep school group this winter. The Cantab team will hardly measure up to the strength of the other teams, judging by their performances of last year.

Goose Hewson, who caught for the Newmarket camp team that won the championship of the Newmarket town baseball league, is performing for New Haven Eagles this season. Hewson is Brantford boy and played junior hockey for Oshawa Bees against Aurora Tigers in 1940. Phil Vitale, another old baseball stalwart of the Newmarket soldiers who likes his hockey rugged to say the least, is vowing the boys with the biffs and bangs in the mercantile circuit at Ravina this year.

Grant Cook, former Aurora junior who served overseas with the Engineers, is back again in action at Ravina. Tommy Jamieson of Newmarket army fame has rejoined Bowers with whom he played mercantile last winter following early season trials with the pros.

Jack Hinchcliffe, who bolstered the Newmarket defence last winter for that final assault on the navy citadel, is handing it out this year for Mahers at Varsity arena.

The O.H.A. convention is Saturday at 1 p.m. at the Royal York and Billy Hewitt has issued a warning that entries for the coming season should be filled without delay as the draw for groups will be made shortly. All those concerned should take note and act without further delay. It's no use crying about what might have been. We'll be giving you a word picture as per usual of what goes on.

Down Tulsa way our two gifts to the American professional hockey circuit, Scotty Mair and Bill Wilson, are turning in bang up efforts and with the exception of Joe Sadler, former St. Michael's College star, the two North Yorkers are just about the most talented forwards on the team which is coached by Gus Marker, ex-Toronto Leafs winger. Mair, so far as we are able to tabulate in the few weeks he has been with the club, has banged home five counters and a number of assists. Wilson, who has been there longer, has a few more points and last week, against Paul Hogg's Fort Worth Chicks, banged home three goals.

Incidentally, unless three goals are scored in a row, it should not be referred to as "the hat trick". That phrase originated in cricket back in the last century when a bowler who took three wickets in a row by clean bowls was presented with a hat. Carl Liscombe, still with Detroit, holds the record for the fastest performance in organized hockey with three straight goals scored in one minute and 52 seconds in 1938 against Chicago Black Hawks. Fastest three goals on record was made by the old Maroons team with Dave Trotter, Babe Siebert and Nels Stewart banging home three goals in 24 seconds.

Let's get back to Tulsa, however, and see who are the playmates of Wilson and Mair. Buddy LaMarche is in goal with Clare Dillon, ex-navy juniors and seniors, Gus Morrison and Joe Sadler, St. Mike's, Johnny Uhracio, Soo, Shep Maynor, North Bay, Nick Knott, Oshawa Generals, Jack Wallis, Winnipeg, Johnny McCormack, St. Mike's, McGregor Myles, Louis Smerke, Jack Baker, ex-navy juniors, on the line-up. They are currently setting a hot clip and Wilson and Mair may well be playing in higher class hockey before the year is over.

Bob Dill, ex-New York Rangers, who was rumored as being the player Herbie Cain was traded to Rangers for by Boston Bruins (entirely erroneous), hasn't even made the N.H.L. this year but is with St. Paul in the same league as Mair and Wilson. Partnered with him on defence is Alex. Sandalack, who the fans will recall as the ace of the T. and S. defence in the C.A.C. league in 1944 and as the bul-work of the 1945 Armored Corps team, champions of Camp Borden.

Ike Harper, former Markham junior and intermediate defence star, who performed with gusto for Ballantyne in the Aurora town league last winter, has been named as manager of the Stouffville junior C team. The folks over Stouffville war, after discussing all the angles, recently voted to ban imports and stick with local boys. They are hopeful of securing a grouping in their own series in place of being grouped with junior B clubs like Richmond Hill, Markham, Scarborough Rangers and Young Leafs.

It is suggested that Whitby (how do they rate C?), Uxbridge, and Port Perry, where there have been some strong junior teams in recent years, will all be playing opponents, a grouping that would be eminently satisfactory to those behind the Stouffville club and would provide fairly even competition. We think that Stouffville made a wise decision to stick with their own youngsters come what may rather than bring in outsiders.

L.-Cpl. Milt Wallace and two other track stars at Newmarket camp participated in the American Thanksgiving road race classic at Berwick, Penn. Wallace ended in sixth place behind his old rivals, Bob Rankine (3rd), Ab Morton (4th). Ken McKeanday was 18th and Larry Cavanaugh, who is perhaps better known as a boxer, was 20th. It was a nice showing by the trio against the fastest middle distance men on the continent. Since leaving Newmarket, little has been heard of that sensational young runner, Allister Cameron, and it is to be presumed he has retired for the time being at least.

Joint McComb, despite the fact he has been no ball of fire in the International league, has been playing some fair hockey for Providence Reds. McComb's performance has Coach Yank Boyd and Joint's many friends and supporters a bit worried. He is playing sound hockey mechanically but seems to lack the dash and sureness of former years. The Providence management knows this and is prepared to give Joint a real chance. So far, McComb, generally a potent marksman, has only scored a couple of goals and picked up a few assists. He has a like number of penalties, too. It seems strange to see Joint down so low in the scoring records but we have not given up hope and believe some improvement will be seen shortly.

To those who inquired, the Jamiesons listed with Providence is not Tommy Jamieson of the Newmarket camp team but Wendy Jamieson who formerly played with Oshawa juniors. With Providence are the veteran defencemen, Bingo Kampman, Toronto Leafs, and Tommy Anderson of New York Americans fame. George Boothman, ex-Leafs, is also with the Reds. Art Gagne, a Canadiens chabot, along with Andy Bellemare, is the team's leading scorer. Doug Bartlett, who played on defence for Brampton Army two years ago and last year was with Armored Corps, has lined up with Owen Sound seniors but is presently out of action with an injured leg.

Richmond Hill expects to sign Ev Smith, ace defenceman of the Port Credit team, also Pavanell and "Corky" Galbraith, as well as one or two others from the same team. Smith is in excellent shape, having been playing high school football all fall, and picked for the suburban high school all-star team. Galbraith had few superiors as a centre last year and Pavanell is a good, durable, all-round performer. If they get these lads, Charlie Rowntree can pretty well figure on being home free.

Fox, a Toronto lad, is showing up well on defence and a new forward, Hogue is much in evidence. The club has a roster of around 60 to pick from, thanks to the energy of Grant Nighswander and Jimmy Grainger. Haddleton, last year with Victory Aircraft, is a certain starter as is Dunn of last year's club who has returned from the R.C.A.F. Red Palmateer is giving Normie Stunden and two other candidates quite a battle for the starting cage post. Palmateer is every bit as good as Stunden but hasn't had a good defence in front of him. Present plans are to alternate them until a final choice is made. St. Mike's Buzzers are booked for an exhibition workout at Ravina and a game will likely be booked with Barrie.

years back, expects to have a junior team this year in the O.H.A. and if so, the Hill plans for the Port Credit players may be somewhat upset. If we remember rightly, Galbraith and at least two other players resided in Oakville. It looks like a real revival for hockey in the Lake Ontario town where there will be juvenile, midget and bantam entries in the O.M.H.A., a kids' league, junior D and possibly an intermediate team.

Orangeville has entered an intermediate team this year, its first in organized hockey since it captured the junior C championship from Aurora in 1938. Many of the boys on that team are now back from serving in the armed forces and are ready to take to the ice again. Just where they will play is not stated for the Orangeville rink is now used as a dance palace in a big way. Milton and Acton are expected to have intermediate teams this season, too.

Baz Megaffin, well-known hockey player who formerly operated the Pefferlaw tavern, is slated to coach Oakville juniors and will handle the intermediates if they play. Jimmy Cook, one of North York's best all-round athletes in pre-war days, is a blushing bridegroom, having middle-aided it with Miss Dorothy Neal of Niagara Falls. Jim, who returned from overseas a few weeks ago, is coming back to Aurora to work in the near future. Back in 1935, Jimmy set three junior records which are still standing in the North York interschool track meets. He galloped as follows for new district records: 100 yards, 11.1 sec., 220 yards, 25 sec., 440 yards, 55.3 sec. He will likely be interested in taking a whirl at hockey again.

Young Hop Hemphill, who twirled ball for Columbus Boys, who eliminated the Newmarket (York Lions), midget entry in the second round of the Ontario baseball playoffs, is being sought by Brooklyn Dodgers to sign a contract. Young Hemphill at 16 is a dandy and the Toronto Leafs have their eyes on him, too, so he will be signed by either one. Hemphill wasn't so much better than Broughton, Rouse, Ronnie Simmons and Norm Stunden who hurled for the teams in the district league except he had had more coaching and better publicity. We may yet see some professional ball players coming out of North York. Neither Columbus nor Lizzies, who eliminated Aurora bantams, took the Ontario title. Teams from the Welland district

TO THE EDITOR

The Editor, The Era and Express: As you know, I had the pleasure of serving the citizens of Newmarket on the 1945 council. Many matters of importance came up during the year. As a member of the council and as a citizen, I have given these matters considerable thought and dealt with them as fairly as I could.

I realize the responsibilities ahead are not light. First I may say that we must plan for additional municipal sites. The widening of Main St. is badly needed. Enlarging our youth training is also essential. In each case, I feel it my duty both as councillor and citizen to give as much thought and energy possible to bring about these things.

We have had the co-operation of the Women's Institute in the past and the Institute is certainly to be congratulated in their work. We have at last fulfilled a civic duty by installing a public restroom, which will be supervised by the Institute, in the rear of the municipal building. If we all lend a helping hand to make Newmarket a larger and better place, Newmarket will prosper.

G. M. Byers.

The Editor, The Era and Express: I have a suggestion to make. The Halloween party in the Memorial Arena was such a success that I wonder if a Christmas concert could be held there.

The schools will be having concerts as well as the Scouts, Cubs and the church children's choirs. They could all combine for a community concert. The band could play Christmas carols and the audience sing them.

Remember!

BORN PRACTICALLY INSIDE: A ZOO. Toronto's Gordon Sinclair has turned his bizarre heritage to the weaving of strange adventures from foreign lands. At the age of twenty-two he became editor of the women's page of a large Toronto newspaper, and admits he was probably the worst women's editor in Canadian journalism.

Having next been instructed to write stories about hoboes he produced such fascinating copy he was sent to Europe then the Orient. Gordon's talent is to invest factual and authentic information with the glamour and excitement of the "tall tale." This new book, just off the press, BRIGHT PATHS TO ADVENTURE, is another Sinclair winner. McClelland and Kewart, $1.25.

BETTER HARVEST by the new Canadian author, Violet King, marks a pattern in the advance of Canadian literature. It is a historical novel, set in the difficult period when Canada was first feeling the tug of independence from paternal government in 1826 to '33. It is a battle of twin loyalties, of the courage and conflicts which are woven into the fabric of every Canadian's heritage. It is the story of great love and great human understanding. Reviewers say "Watch Violet King!" McClelland and Stewart.

NOW THAT THE NORTH WIND blows and there's no further argument about winter being just around the corner, many of your Christmas problems, Richard Hudnut offers a galaxy of enchanting gifts—glamorous makeup kits and charming packages of toilet preparations. One lovely DuBarry kit in hangbag style contains preparations for a complete beauty treatment. It is available in brown, blue or maroon leather. Other DuBarry kits contain makeup preparations and are designed to carry in your handbag. Smooth, creamy DuBarry gift soap makes a truly acceptable gift for Christmas giving. Choose Richard Hudnut for the "special friends" on your list.

The Lions club in the market building, have a Christmas tree and the old gentleman in the arena. Only I would suggest that the candy, etc., be given as the children go home and thus escape a litter of orange peels, paper, etc., in the arena.

A silver collection could be taken at the door from adults which would help pay the costs for the evening.

The Editor, The Era and Express: Will you kindly allow me the space in your valuable paper to protest very vigorously against the practice of putting out poison for dogs or any pets to get hold of? During the past few weeks in the Kennedy St., Aurora, area, several dogs have been destroyed by this method.

Whether intentionally or not, I would remind the person or persons that it is against the law to continue such a practice. May I also remind whom it may concern that a boy's best friend is his dog.

The practice of putting out poison is a cruel one and should not be tolerated in a democracy that has fought so long, and sacrificed so much, for the protection of God's creatures, be it man or beast.

M. N. Southwood.

The Editor, The Era and Express: At the request of a number of citizens and after careful consideration I have decided to stand for council. If I am elected I will endeavor to administer council affairs in a businesslike manner. I will pay special attention to setting up a separate recreation commission for the purpose of co-ordinating all recreational activities. Since I have been very active for many years in musical and sporting circles, I think I have the necessary qualifications and also a sound logical plan.

I will give every assistance possible to our veterans to help them become rehabilitated, to provide them with a comfortable clubroom, to give them the kind of security they fought for so gallantly.

I believe housing is the most important problem on the agenda. Consequently, I will fight constantly and fearlessly to break down every barrier, economic or otherwise, which is frustrating a large scale national housing scheme.

I believe in long term planning, in putting a definite plan on paper for channelling our future growth. For many years I have been a keen student of public health. My policy is based on preservation of health rather than on cures. I believe in liberal educational opportunities for all, but not in squandering huge sums of public money on pupils who show in the early grades that they are adapted for technical training only.

I believe that regardless of our political, service club, church, or other affiliations, much can be accomplished on a strictly community project basis. I intend to continue using every educational medium at my disposal to break down all stupid and petty prejudices which would hinder Newmarket from becoming a thriving, peaceful and happy community.

venue "C" team for the O.M.H.A. All our midget team needs is a good organization to sponsor it. We'll give them free practice time and all their gates because we want to see kid hockey go over with a bang.

Here's a suggestion. What about a little N.H.L. series of four kids' teams with the teams named after their big-time counterparts. We have the best hockey coaches in the country ready to help, Larry Molynaux, Bing Caswell, Jack Life, Stan, Smith, Shanahan and others.

Here's one for the hockey fans of North York. We suggest that the bush league executives in Richmond Hill, Aurora, Newmarket and Bradford get together and work out their schedules so that we can all finish together and play off for the trophy for the championship of North York. We can draw up a set of rules that will protect everybody and give us senior hockey in our own backyard at working-men's prices. We could arrange such a meeting. How about it, Ab Hulse?

IRMA BAKER IS NOVEMBER BRIDE

A quiet wedding ceremony took place at the Christian church parsonage on Nov. 19, when Vivian Irma Baker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Baker, Newmarket, became the bride of Cpl. William Edward (Pat) McLean, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Leo McLean, Montreal. Rev. A. B. Stein officiated.

The bride looked attractive in a street-length dress of blue crepe with black accessories and corsage of baby pink mums. Miss Helen Smith was bridesmaid and wore a street-length dress of dusty rose wool with mauve mums.

Pte. Jerry Gauthier was best man.

The young couple will reside in Montreal.
